Department of Civil Engineering, AISSMS, Pune in association with IGS Pune Chapter organised one Day Workshop on the topic Geotechnical Case Studies of Infrastructure Projects by online mode. At the beginning Convener of the workshop and Treasurer IGS Pune, Dr. R D Nalawade welcomed all the delegates and highlighted the topic of the workshop keeping in mind the interest of the student community and the practicing engineers to get an impression of the live projects and contribution of Geotechnical society as whole towards these national building projects. 285 delegates were present for the event. The organisers were overwhelmed to welcome IGS President Shri N K Samadhiya who graced the event and addressed gathering regarding Indian Geotechnical Society. Activities by IGS Pune Chapter were highlighted by Secretary Mrs, Suman Jain.

The session began with an interesting topic on Advances in Geotechnical testing delivered by Shri Ramesh Kulkarni, (CMD Soiltech (India) Private Limited & Past Chairman of IGS Pune Chapter), a comprehensive lecture was given on the several advanced techniques being developed and adopted in field of geotechnical testing and its development in recent past.

Second session was delivered by Shri Vikas Patil, Managing Director Savi Infrastructure and Properties Pvt Ltd, Chairman of IGS Pune Chapter on 'Advanced Controlled Yielding Technique'- Solution of high rise retaining walls - Case Study. The session detailed on the advanced technologies that have been developed for retaining wall of higher heights and applied in practice. The session was very informative and a confidence booster with the different levels of safety that were introduced during design and implementation process.

The final session of the event was delivered by Dr Jalindar R Patil on the topic Automation in Road Construction and Maintenance, very important aspect i.e., advanced methods to ensure quality and testing in construction and maintenance. Automation and innovation are essential in the field of maintenance where significant time and money are spent by the department, consultants, contractors and other stake holders.

All the lectures were well received by the participants and it was interactive with good questions from the attendees. Finally EC Member, Er. Annapoorni Iyer summarized the workshop and proposed the vote of thanks.

SHIVANJALI 2022

13th & 14th of May at AISSMS COE the annual day program 29TH SHIVANJALI had been held. Students were very happy and excited to attend and perform in the annual day program. All the students from various departments have to be included in this annual day celebration. From two weeks before the celebration faculties & students had started working and putting the entire event into pieces. Students on the other hand had started practicing for various events to be performed. There were so many events such as dance, singing, drama, skit, mime, poem recitation, comedy acts and cracking jokes, and many more.
